

Carla Graebner

Chair, CAUT Librarians' and Archivists' Committee

Carla Graebner is the Research Data Services Librarian and Librarian for Government Information at Simon Fraser University. Currently the Chair of the CAUT Librarians' and Archivists' Committee, she is also a past President of the Simon Fraser University Faculty Association and a member of their current bargaining team which has successfully negotiated their first collective agreement. She is on the Board of the BC Freedom of Information and Privacy Association and is active in initiatives regarding ongoing access to government information including the Depository Services Program Advisory Committee, the British Columbia Library Association and the Canadian Association of University Teachers.