PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Thursday, November 26

Time

12:00 - 12:45 (EST)

Orientation for New Council Delegates

For new delegates to CAUT Council, this session will provide an overview of procedures and rules of order for the meeting. There will also be a review of CAUT's organizational structure, activities and services, and meeting policies.

Information Sessions:

13:00 - 13:45 (EST)

Defending Collegial Governance

Across the country, several administrations have used COVID-19 as an opportunity to bypass collegial processes and assume final authority for academic decisions. Join a discussion with representatives of academic staff associations who have pushed back against these threats and organized to defend and strengthen collegial governance. This event will take place in English with simultaneous interpretation into French.

14:00 - 14:45 (EST)

Lessons from Bargaining Remotely

Hear from representatives from associations who have conducted bargaining during the COVID-19 pandemic. Speakers will share strategies for communicating effectively with members and as a bargaining team in a time of remote bargaining. This event will take place in English with simultaneous interpretation into French.

15:00 - 15:45 (EST)

Francophone Associations Fight Back

Join a discussion with representatives of Francophone academic staff associations. Speakers will discuss their campaigns and struggles to preserve minority language rights from both provincial and institutional threats. This event will take place in French with simultaneous interpretation into English.
