
Patty Hajdu

The Honourable Minister for Employment and Workforce Development and Labour

MP for Thunder Bay—Superior North

First elected in 2015, Minister Hajdu was appointed as the Minister of Status of Women immediately following the election. She was then appointed as Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Labour in January 2017.

Before being elected, Minister Hajdu worked in public health and focused on drug policy, youth development and homelessness and was the Executive Director of the largest homeless shelter in Northwestern Ontario, Shelter House.

Minister Hajdu has focused on helping Canadians get the skills they need for good quality jobs.
